

Lunch Bunch: We will not meet in April, unless somebody other than Joan wants to schedule it. Contact Leslie (leslie.jackson@bellinghamathome.org) to include information in an e-blast if something is arranged.

Wednesday, April 11

Volunteer Training: Your next opportunity to train as a BAH volunteer will be from 2-4 in Room 9 at BSAC. The volunteer application is available online, or you can request one from the office (360 746-3462). After you complete and submit an application, a member of the Volunteer Task Force will contact you to discuss vetting and training requirements. Members are encouraged to become volunteers, but we rely on non-members as well. Do you have a relative or neighbor who might like to help?

Tuesday, April 17

Tax Day: Taxes are due this year on April 17, not April 15. Yay! Two more days to procrastinate.

Friday, April 27, 2-4 p.m.

Book Group: 4th Friday of the month. The book is "In the Midst of Winter," a novel by Isabel Allende. The author, winner of the Presidential Medal of Freedom Citation, has transfixed readers with her storytelling of romance, oppression, violence and redemption. The title takes its cue from Albert Camus' famous quote: "In the Midst of Winter, I finally found there was within me an invincible summer." The meaning: Hope and love spring from tragedy and loss. It's a fascinating read. Join us at the home of Lynn Lohr, 360-733-3305. Please call Lynn for the address and directions to her home.
